

CTI™
Consultants' Training Institute™

I n s t r u c t o r   B i o g r a p h y

---

Jean-Sébastien Lénik

Vice President at NERA Economic Consulting
NERA Economic Consulting (Paris & Geneva offices)
Work Phone: +33 170 750 198

- Canada - Masters, McGill University
- France - Executive Education in Corporate Finance, INSEAD
- French Bar Exam

Jean-Sébastien Lénik is a Vice President in NERA's Intercompany Pricing – Intellectual Property practice. As a senior economist, Mr. Lénik has worked with valuation engagements focusing on complex transactions involving intellectual property, notably in the context of private equity deals, business restructuring, and post merger integration. Prior to joining NERA, Mr. Lénik was an economist at Arthur Andersen and KPMG. He then joined one of the leading pharmaceutical groups, where he was in charge of intercompany valuation issues. Mr. Lénik is a frequent lecturer valuation issues at various conferences. His recent presentations were delivered in Beijing, Geneva, and Paris. He is also a lecturer on valuation issues at Paris Dauphine, Paris Pantheon Assas Universities (France). His notable publications have been published in the Canadian Tax Journal, International Tax Review, BNAI, Finance Today etc.